IT IS A BURNING SHAME

Too late now for Insurance.

That so many churches are without sufficient insurance and not properly safeguarded against fire.

The National Mutual Church Insurance Company of Chicago

has continuously since 1898 been furnishing protection AT COST against FIRE, LIGHTNING and WINDSTORM. No assessments; easy annual payments; legal reserve for protection of policyholders same as stock companies. Parsonages, Homes and Personal Effects of Church Members also insured. Policies held in all parts of the United States aggregating nearly EIGHTY MILLION DOLLARS. Losses paid over TWO AND ONE-HALF MILLION DOLLARS. Not one dollar ever due and unpaid a single day.

NO AGENTS. DEAL DIRECT

JOURNAL

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

FIRST DAY

Tuesday, September 17, 1929.

Opening.—The Pacific Northwest Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church met for its first session in St. Paul's Church, Spokane, Washington, September 17, 1929, Bishop Titus Lowe presiding. "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" was sung, and B. F. Brooks, a charter member of the Puget Sound Conference, led in prayer.

Short addresses were made by Robt. Warner, for the Columbia River Conference; E. H. Todd, for the Puget Sound Conference, and Mr. G. A. Phillips, for the laymen. Bishop Lowe spoke concerning "The Mission of the Church."

Holy Sacrament.—The Bishop, assisted by the District Superintendents and the pastor of the church, administered the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. After a service of testimonies and song, J. C. Kirkman, the oldest member of the Columbia River Conference, pronounced the benediction, and the Conference adjourned.

SECOND DAY

Wednesday, September 18, 1929.

Devotions.—Bishop Lowe called the Conference to order, and the devotions were led by W. E. Callahan. Hymn No. 180 was sung and prayer was offered by J. M. Adams.

Roll Call.—Hubert C. Vincent, secretary of the last session of the Columbia River Conference, called the roll of that Conference, and the roll of the Puget Sound Conference was called by Robt. C. Hartley, the secretary of that Conference. One hundred and ninety-one effective members and seven of those on trial responded to their names.

Gavel Presented.

Organization.—J. R. Magee, chairman of the Joint High Commission on Merger, read the Conference officers elected by the Commission and they were confirmed:

Registrar, W. G. R. Dann.

Memorial Service.—The Conference Memorial Service was held, W. B. Young presiding. The Conference stood while the secretaries read the names of James W. Helm, Chas. M. Carson, W. H. Baker, D. C. Franklin, John Johnson, Ernest J. Bates, and Ebenezer Hopkins, Conference members who had died during the year, and Mrs. D. L. Rader and Mrs. H. H. Walkington, widows of former members of the Conference. Hymn No. 524 was sung, and the Twenty-third Psalm was repeated in unison. Historical statements of the members who had died were read by the secretaries. J. E. Crowther offered prayer. The memorial address was made by T. W. Jeffry, and the service closed with prayer by Bishop Lowe.

Messages of Sympathy.—On motion, the Secretary was instructed to send messages of sympathy to families of those who had died during the year.

Dissolution of Corporation.—B. F. Koontz announced to the Conference the dissolution of the corporation known as the Columbia River Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church by unanimous vote of its members, and that all monies in the hands of that corporation were turned over to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Conference Corporation.

Declaration of Merger

INASMUCH as the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1928 granted an Enabling Act for the merger of the Columbia River Conference and the Puget Sound Conference, as recorded in the Discipline, Par. 547, 3 (10), and

INASMUCH as the said Conferences have both voted by large majorities in favor of the merger, the united Conference to be called the Pacific Northwest Conference;

NOW, therefore, I, Titus Lowe, Presiding Bishop of both Conferences, do hereby grant concurrence to this union and declare the two Conferences duly united, the same to become effective immediately.

Date, May 20, 1929. (Signed) TITUS LOWE,
Presiding Bishop.

Acheson; Institutional Benevolences, Erle Howell; Hospitals and Homes, U. F. Hawk; Transportation, V. A. Spicker; Evangelism, P. H. Ashby; Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals, F. R. Gillett.

Adjournment.—B. F. Brooks moved that we meet to-morrow night in Conference session, and after the transaction of any necessary business and the reading of the appointments, the Conference stand adjourned. After the singing of the Doxology, J. E. Crowther pronounced the benediction.

SIXTH DAY

Sunday, September 16, 1929.

At 9.00 A. M. the Conference Love Feast was held, led by Dr. Geo. A. Landen. A large concourse of people filled the building to overflowing. It was a time of spiritual refreshment.

At 10.30 a vibrant and powerful sermon was delivered by Bishop Lowe on "The Compelling Lure of Christ."

At 3.00 P. M. the Conference met for the ordination of Elders and Deacons and the consecration of Deaconesses. The candidates for ordination and consecration, led by Bishop Lowe, with the Board of Ministerial Training, the members of the classes in the Courses of Study, and the District Superintendents, entered the church in solemn procession singing, "The Church's One Foundation." Prayer was offered by J. Ralph Magee.

Consecration of Deaconesses.—Wm. Park, president of the Board of Deaconesses, presented Rose Marie Wolf and Gail Marie Kiser, who were duly consecrated Deaconesses by Bishop Lowe.

Ordination of Deacon.—The Secretary presented Everett M. Filbert, who was ordained Deacon by Bishop Lowe.

Ordination of Elders.—The class for ordination as Elders was called by the Secretary. Bishop Lowe, assisted by the District Superintendents and other Elders, ordained to the office of Elder: Dwight G. Bennett, D. Willia Caffray, Henry R. Cross, Frank E. Goodnough, Luverne C. Hicks, and Harold E. Nelson.

A most powerful and stimulating address was delivered to the candidates by Dr. Thomas W. Jeffry. The whole service was most impressive and one long to be remembered by those who were privileged to attend.

CERTIFICATION OF ORDINATION

THIS CERTIFIES, That in Spokane, Washington, on Sunday, September 22, 1929, in accordance with the Discipline and Ritual of the Methodist Episcopal Church, I ordained as Deacon, Everett M. Filbert.

THE REPORT

The General Conference of 1928, convened in Kansas City, passed the following Enabling Act: "Puget Sound and Columbia River Conferences may unite to form one Conference during the quadrennium, with the consent of the Bishop or Bishops presiding, and under the usual Disciplinary conditions." (Discipline, 1928, Paragraph 547, Section 10.)

At the session of the Columbia River Conference held at Lewiston, Idaho, on September 6, 1928, the following resolution was passed:

"Whereas: Negotiations between the Columbia River Conference and the Puget Sound Conference have been going on for some time, looking toward the union of these two Conferences; and

"Whereas: The General Conference of 1928 has nullified our former action in that direction; and

"Whereas: The last General Conference has again granted to these two Conferences an Enabling Act making union possible; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we as the members of the Columbia River Conference, do now reaffirm our readiness to effect such a consolidation and request our presiding Bishop to appoint such committees as he may deem necessary to arrange the legal and other details required for the perfecting of such union." (Minutes of 1928, page 39.)

On the same day the following minute appears: "On motion of Charles Schreiber, the Conference authorized the appointment of a Commission with power to act in the matter of the union of the two Conferences." (Minutes of 1928, page 18.)

The following ministers were appointed as commissioners: A. A. Callender, E. F. Harold, C. E. Miller, H. O. Perry, Robert E. Smith, Hubert C. Vincent, H. J. Wood.

Three sessions of the Commission have been held, but many sessions of subcommittees have been required, while individual members of the Commission have given days of hard and intelligent work to this task.

The subcommittees appointed were as follows:

Incorporation of Conference and Dissolution of Old Corporations.—F. A. LaViolette, Chairman; A. A. Callender, B. H. Wilson, W. B. Young, and Andrew Warner. The incorporation of the several bodies within the Conference was referred to the same committee.

Annuities, Conference Claimants Funds, Preachers' Aid, etc.—The Presidents of the existing corporations, namely, Byron H. Wilson, R. E. Smith; the Executive Secretaries, namely, B. E. Koontz, G. F. Hopkins, and R. C. Hartley. Byron H. Wilson was named chairman.

Duties of the Committees on Conference Relations and Ministerial Qualifications.—W. B. Young, Chairman; H. O. Perry and R. E. Smith.

Memorial Service.—R. J. Reid, Chairman; F. A. LaViolette and B. H. Wilson.

Committee on Rules.—C. D. Rarey, Chairman; R. C. Hartley and H. C. Vincent.

Financial Askings and Conference Institutions.—J. Ralph Magee, Chairman; J. M. Adams, E. J. Huston, Chas. L. Creesey, and H. J. Wood.

Epworth League Institutes.—E. F. Harold, Chairman; Olin Graham, Ralph I. Thomas, H. C. Vincent, and R. L. Sprague.

District Superintendents' Reports.—The District Superintendents, with Andrew Warner designated as Chairman.

New Board of Trustees.—F. A. LaViolette, Chairman; A. A. Callender, B. H. Wilson, W. B. Young, and Andrew Warner.

Expenses of the Annual Conference and Entertainment.—Andrew Warner, Chairman; E. A. Wolf, C. W. MacCaughey, Louis Magin, G. W. Frame.

Conference Board of Education.—C. E. Miller, Chairman; J. E. Purdy, Wm. Hints, E. R. Attebery, and E. C. Newham.

Federation of Churches.—The District Superintendents.

Conference Program.—R. E. Smith, Chairman; W. B. Young, S. J. Chaney, and H. O. Perry.

Deaconess Board.—J. Ralph Magee, Chairman; J. M. Adams, E. J. Huston, C. L. Creesey, and H. J. Wood.

Committee on Hospitals.—Same as Deaconess Board.

Number of Districts.—B. H. Wilson, Chairman; Andrew Warner, F. A. LaViolette, A. A. Callender, H. O. Perry.

Transportation of Retired Men.—J. T. McQueen, U. F. Hawk.

Naming of Standing Committees and all Committees Not Otherwise Named.—Bishop Lowe and the District Superintendents.

AGENDA ITEM 1

The name, Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was unanimously adopted.

AGENDA ITEM 2

Inasmuch as the Puget Sound Conference had trust holdings and the Columbia River Conference did not, it was unanimously voted to make the Puget Sound Corporation the continuing one and dissolve the Columbia River Corporation. This was to avoid long legal entanglements. The amendments made to the Articles of Incorporation of the continuing corporation were taken in large part from the Columbia River Articles of Incorporation. The following are the amended articles, which are now the Articles of Incorporation for the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church:

THE AMENDED ARTICLES
Exhibit A

Whereas, The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at its session in May, 1928, held in Kansas City, Missouri, passed an Enabling Act authorizing the union of the Puget Sound Annual Conference and the Columbia River Annual Conference, and,

Whereas, Pursuant to such authority, the Columbia River Annual Conference, by formal vote of its members on September 6, 1928, also agreed to the union with the Puget Sound Annual Conference, and,

Whereas, Acting under the same authority, the Puget Sound Annual Conference, by a formal vote of its members on September 14, 1928, agreed to the union with the Columbia River Annual Conference, and,

Whereas, The Joint High Commission appointed by the members of the said Conferences to carry into effect the action thus taken, uniting said Conferences, has recommended that the corporation known as the Puget Sound Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church be constituted the continuing corporation and take over and exercise the corporate powers of said two uniting Conferences, and that the corporation known as the Columbia River Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, after transferring all rights, real and personal property, to the continuing corporation, shall terminate its corporate existence, and,

Whereas, A majority of the members of the Puget Sound Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and two thirds of the Board of Trustees have consented to and agreed to amend the Articles of Incorporation as hereinafter provided, and pursuant to such procedure and by the unanimous vote of the trustees of said corporation, it was determined that the Articles of Incorporation of the Puget Sound Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, incorporated under the laws of the State of Washington on July 26, 1901, should be amended.

Be it Resolved, That said Articles of Incorporation are hereby amended to read as hereinafter set forth.

Now, therefore, we do certify that said Articles of Incorporation are amended by the substitution of the following Articles and made to read as follows, to-wit:

Article I. Name and Place of Business

The name by which this corporation shall be known is the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The principal place of business shall be located in the city of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington.

Article II. Membership

The present members of the Puget Sound Annual Conference and the present members of the Columbia River Annual Conference, hereafter jointly to be known as the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, together with such persons as shall hereafter be admitted to the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church by election or transfer, according to the terms of the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, are and shall be members of this corporation. Any change in the territorial boundaries of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference as may be hereafter determined by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church shall change the membership of any eligible person who may be included in the territory added or subtracted by such action. Any person becoming ineligible to membership of said Conference according to the laws and usages of the Methodist Episcopal Church shall cease to be a member of this corporation.

Article III. Objects

The object for which this corporation is formed shall be the prosecution of any religious, missionary, educational, charitable, scientific, or philanthropic enterprise; the provision for the care and pensioning of its members and the widows and orphans of deceased members; the establishment of such institutions, organizations, and societies as it may judge necessary for the attainment of these objects. It shall have the right to possess, buy, mortgage, sell, lease, barter, and exchange all real and personal property. It shall have authority to contract annuities, collect funds, receive gifts and legacies, establish endowments and exercise such powers as may be conferred by law upon benevolent corporations by the State of Washington.

Article IV. Trustees and Amendments

The corporate powers of this corporation shall be exercised by a Board of Trustees of fifteen (15) members, consisting of the present members of the Board of Trustees or their successors in office, and six (6) additional members who shall be elected by the present members of said Board of Trustees, and to serve for the time specified or until their successors are elected at the annual meeting of the corporation. Thereafter the members of the Board of Trustees and their tenure of office shall be in the manner prescribed in the by-laws of the corporation.

The by-laws of this corporation shall be subject to amendment by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the corporation and a two-thirds vote of the Board of Trustees. The by-laws shall set forth the rules, regulations, and directions for the government of the corporation and its officers, the conduct of its business, and the time and manner of holding the meetings of the members and of the Board of Trustees.

BY-LAWS OF THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Article I. Meetings

Section 1.—The Annual Meeting of this corporation shall be held at the place of the meeting of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference. The President shall give due notice of such meeting at the first session of the Conference, and such action by the President shall be considered sufficient notice to all members of the corporation.

Section 2.—The Annual Meeting of the Board of Trustees shall take place following the annual meeting of the members. It shall be the duty of the President to indicate the time and place to the trustees, and immediately upon their assembly they shall proceed to the election of the officers of the corporation and transact such other business as may be properly brought before them.

Section 3.—Special meetings of the members of the corporation may be called by an affirmative vote of the majority of the trustees. Special meetings of the Board of Trustees may be called by the President or upon the written request of three trustees.

Section 4.—The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees, as hereinafter provided, shall meet at the call of the President or upon the written request of two members of the committee.

Section 5.—While the principal place of business shall be in the city of Seattle, State of Washington, yet it shall be lawful and right to call meetings of the members of the corporation, the Board of Trustees, the Executive Committee, or any other committees which may be authorized, at any place within the boundaries of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, as said boundaries are now constituted or shall be hereafter determined by the Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Article II. Officers and Committees

Section 1.—The Trustees of this corporation shall be elected by the members at their annual meeting. The Board of Trustees so elected shall have power to fill vacancies until the next annual meeting of members.

Section 2.—The officers of this corporation shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, and one (1) member of the Executive Committee. These officers shall perform the duties usual to their respective offices and as may be prescribed by law.

Section 3.—All officers having custody of funds or engaged in the collection of funds, shall provide a bond, guaranteeing the faithful performance of their respective duties. The amount of, and the sufficiency of, such bond shall be determined by the Board of Trustees and by them reported to the Annual Conference.

Section 4.—Access to the securities of this corporation shall be by the Treasurer or his representative and one other officer of the corporation. A record of the acts of the officers so dealing with the securities of the corporation shall be made in triplicate; one copy to be left in the vault, one to be retained by the Treasurer, and one to be filed with the Secretary of the Board of Trustees.

Section 5.—The Board of Trustees shall elect a committee of six (6) persons, to be known as the Committee on Investments. Three (3) of the members shall be from the membership of the Trustees, and three (3) from the laity of the church. Such persons shall be selected because of their experience and ability to properly advise the trustees in all matters of investment in order that all funds and property of the corporation may be safeguarded and conserved. The Board of Trustees may appoint any other committees and determine their duties as it may judge necessary for the conduct of its business.

Section 6.—The executive Committee shall consist of the officers of the Board of Trustees and of the corporation, who shall exercise the powers of the Board in the interim of its meetings.

Section 7.—Officers of the corporation shall hold office for one (1) year or until their successors are elected. Trustees shall hold office for three (3) years, or until their successors are elected. In case of election to fill vacancies, such trustees shall hold office until the next annual meeting of members.

Article III. Rules and Government

Section 1.—The Board of Trustees, by an affirmative two-thirds vote, shall have authority to exercise the corporate powers of this corporation in conformity with the laws of the State, the Articles of Incorporation, and these by-laws.

Section 2.—The Seal of the Corporation shall be "Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, Seattle."

Section 3.—The Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church as it is now and as it shall be published from time to time, is and shall be the sufficient rule and authority in the government of all the acts and conduct of the business of this corporation.

Article IV. Voting and Amendments

Section 1.—A vote of the members of this corporation may be taken for any purpose consistent with the Articles of Incorporation and the by-laws as herein provided, in the following manner, to-wit:

A. At any meeting of the members when a question shall be submitted in the usual order of parliamentary law.

B. In any meeting of members at which time waivers or proxies shall be presented for voting purposes, and when the subject matter submitted shall have received the approval of the Board of Trustees by a two-thirds affirmative vote.

C. When a majority of the Board of Trustees shall submit to the members of the corporation for a vote by mail, any question properly coming before the members. In all such cases it shall require a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members for adoption.

Section 2.—A quorum at a members' meeting shall be a majority of the members. Seven shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Trustees and four members shall be a quorum of the Executive and Investment Committees.

Section 3.—Amendments to these by-laws or the repeal of any section shall require a two-thirds vote of the Board of Trustees and a majority vote of the members. In all cases of amending or repealing these by-laws, written notice of the proposed change must be given at a meeting preceding the time at which the vote is taken.

In keeping with the action of the Joint High Merger Committee, the members of the Puget Sound Annual Conference met in person, or by proxies, and accepted these amendments to the Articles of Incorporation and by-laws by a vote of 141 for and none against. Their resolution is as follows:

"Resolved by the members of the corporation known as the Puget Sound Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, here assembled in Seattle, Washington, this 20th day of May, 1929, that the amended Articles of Incorporation are hereby approved; that the President and Secretary and the Board of Trustees are hereby authorized and instructed to file the same according to law, and to perform any and all duties that may be imposed by law in order to carry out the full intent and purpose in the Amended Articles of Incorporation as set forth in 'Exhibit A' and by reference made a part of this resolution."

The following Certificate accompanied the Amended Articles of Incorporation when they were filed:

CERTIFICATE

Know All Men by These Presents: That George W. Frame and Fred L. Pedersen, the President and Secretary, respectively, of the Puget Sound Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Washington, pertaining to the organization of benevolent corporations, and heretofore having its principal place of business in the City of Tacoma, in said State, do hereby certify that pursuant to the affirmative vote of more than two-thirds of its members and pursuant to the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the trustees of said corporation at a meeting held at the principal place of business of the corporation on the 20th day of May, A. D. 1929, the Articles of Incorporation of said corporation were amended by the substitution of Amended Articles of Incorporation which are hereto attached, marked Exhibit "A," and by reference made a part hereof.

We further certify that said amendment was authorized pursuant to a vote given in form and manner prescribed by law and the by-laws of such corporation.

In Witness Whereof, the President and Secretary of said corporation have hereunto affixed their signatures and the official seal of said corporation this 20th day of May, A. D. 1929.

THOS. M. ASKREN,
Notary Public in and for the State of Washington, Residing at Tacoma.

The certificate of incorporation from the Secretary of State is as follows:

Article No. 68570
DEPARTMENT OF STATE
Office of the Secretary of State

I, J. Grant Hinkle, Secretary of State of the State of Washington, do hereby certify that Amended Articles of Incorporation of The Puget Sound Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church (changing place of business to Seattle and changing name to Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church) a Domestic Corporation, of Seattle, Washington, were, on the 23d day of May, A. D. 1929, at 9.06 o'clock A. M., filed for record in this office and now remain on file herein, being duly recorded in Book 157, at page 174-175, Domestic Corporations.

In Testimony Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed hereto the Seal of the State of Washington. Done at the Capitol, at Olympia, this 19th day of June, A. D. 1929.

J. GRANT HINKLE, Secretary of State.
By A. M. HITTS, Assistant Secretary of State.

(At the time of the session of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, to be held in Spokane, September 17, 1929, those persons who formed the former Columbia River Conference as it existed just prior to the union with the Puget Sound Conference, should meet as a Corporation of the Columbia River Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and by vote dissolve said corporation.)

AGENDA ITEM 3

"That it shall be the rule of the united Conference that the approval of membership in any corporations not strictly Conference corporations, does not entail economic responsibility. Wherever possible local groups of laymen should accept responsibility. New corporations should not be organized with a view to Conference support until the Annual Conference has first been consulted and has given its approval."

AGENDA ITEM 4

After extended study and many amendments, the following ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION were adopted for the Board of Conference Claimants:

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF BOARD OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

We, the undersigned, citizens of the United States, propose to form a corporation under the laws of the State of Washington as provided in Section 3863 of Remington's Compiled Statutes of Washington, and for that purpose we do hereby certify:

ARTICLE I

The name of this corporation shall be Board of Conference Claimants. The said corporation shall be located at, and its chief place of business shall be in, the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington.

ARTICLE II

The terms of admission to membership shall be as follows: Any member of the Conference known as the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church shall be eligible to admission to membership herein upon signing the by-laws and agreeing to be bound thereby; and in addition there shall be chosen each year by the said Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church twenty (20) laymen, who, upon signing the by-laws of this corporation, shall be members thereof for the term of one (1) year and until their successors are elected by the said Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

ARTICLE III

The object for which said corporation is formed is to aid in the support of the members of this corporation who are likewise members of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. And in order to carry out the object for which this corporation is formed it shall have power to solicit funds; to receive subscriptions, donations, gifts, grants, bequests, and devises; to create and maintain an endowment or income fund; to make and enter into annuity contracts; to receive and hold all property, real and personal, including each and every subscription, donation, grant, gift, trust, bequest, and annuity now held, or in possession of, or which may hereafter become the property of the corporation known as the Conference Claimants Commission of the Puget Sound Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and/or the Puget Sound Conference Claimants Commission and/or the Columbia River Conference Claimants Endowment Association of the Methodist Episcopal Church. And it shall have power to contract with the said corporations for the carrying out of any agreements or conditions under which any of the property, real or personal, is held by the said corporations; and if by the terms under which any of the said corporations shall have heretofore, or shall hereafter acquire any of said property, the same, or any portion thereof, is to be held in any specific manner or for the benefit of any particular class of beneficiaries, this corporation shall have the power to carry out the terms of said gift or devise; and it shall likewise have power from the gifts or donations which it shall receive and which are not impressed with a specified trust to adjust the compensation between all the beneficiaries of this corporation.

To administer all trusts, annuities, or agreements now being administered by said corporation, and to perform each and every act required by the terms of any trust, trust deed, or other agreement entered into by said corporations, or either of them, governing the handling of the funds now in the possession of, or which shall come into the possession of, said corporations, or any of them.

To deal in all kinds of real and personal property, and to do any and all things necessary or convenient to carry out the purpose of this corporation.

ARTICLE IV

The management of this corporation shall be vested in a board of eighteen (18) trustees, of whom nine (9) shall be members of this corporation who are likewise members of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and nine (9) shall be chosen from among the twenty (20) lay members of this corporation who have been selected by the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. And the trustees from among their members shall select a President, Vice-President, Executive Secretary, Recording Secretary, and Treasurer; and the trustees of the corporation and the officers of the corporation shall be selected annually at a time to be fixed by the president of the corporation and occurring during the annual meeting of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Until said meeting and the election of trustees and officers the following persons shall act as trustees, and said trustees shall within two weeks after the filing of these articles select the other officers of the corporation:

J. Ralph Magee	A. A. Callender	E. V. Kuykendall
G. F. Hopkins	W. B. Young	Alfred Lister

Notary Public in and for the State of Washington, Residing at Seattle, Washington.

BY-LAWS OF THE BOARD OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

Article I. Trustees, Officers, and Committees

Section 1.—The Trustees of this corporation shall be elected by the members at the Annual Meeting and shall hold office for three years or until their successors are elected and qualified. The Board of Trustees shall have authority to fill vacancies and trustees shall hold office, when so elected, until the next annual meeting of the members.

Section 2.—The officers of this corporation shall be a President, Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, an Executive Secretary, a Treasurer, and two (2) members of the Executive Committee. These officers shall perform the duties usual to their office and hold office for one year or until their successors are elected and qualified.

Section 3.—All persons having the custody of funds or engaged in the collection of the same, shall provide a good and sufficient bond, guaranteeing the faithful performance of their duties. The Board of Trustees shall determine the amount of such bonds and their sufficiency and report to the corporation at the annual meeting.

Section 4.—The Executive Committee shall consist of the Officers and the two executive members. This committee shall exercise the powers of the corporation in the interim of the meetings of the Board of Trustees and the annual meeting of members.

Section 5.—There shall be a committee of seven members which shall be known as the Investment Committee, selected by the Board of Trustees from its members. Such persons shall be selected because of their experience and business ability. They shall advise the Board of Trustees concerning the investment or sale of all securities, carefully safeguarding and conserving the funds of this corporation.

Article II. Meetings

Section 1.—The Annual Meeting of the members of the corporation shall be at the time and session of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference. The President at the first session of said Conference will give notice of the time and place of meeting, such notice shall constitute a sufficient and legal notice of the meeting of the corporation.

Section 2.—The Annual meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be called by the President immediately following the election of Trustees at the annual meeting of members. They shall at once elect the officers of the corporation and transact such other business as may properly come before them. They shall determine what other meetings they may hold during the year. The President shall have power to convene the Board of Trustees in special session.

Section 3.—The Executive Committee shall meet at the call of the President or upon request of two (2) members.

Section 4.—While the principal place of business is in Seattle, Washington, nevertheless, it shall be lawful to call meetings of the corporation, the Board of Trustees, or the Executive Committee at any place within the bounds of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, as it is now constituted or as it may be changed from time to time.

Article III. Rules, Seal, Government

Section 1.—The Board of Trustees, by an affirmative two-thirds vote, shall have authority to exercise the corporate power of this corporation. Such exercise of power shall be in strict conformity with these by-laws and the Articles of Incorporation.

Section 2.—The Seal of this corporation shall be "Board of Conference Claimants, Seattle."

Section 3.—The Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church as it is now published and as it shall be published from time to time, is and shall be the sufficient rule and authority for the government of all the acts and conduct of the business of this corporation.

Article IV. Quorum, Securities, Amendments

Section 1.—A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum at any annual or special members meetings. Special meetings may be called by the Board of Trustees.

Section 2.—Nine members shall constitute a quorum in a meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Section 3.—Five members shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the Executive and of the Investment Committees.

Section 4.—Access to the securities of this corporation shall be by the Treasurer or his representative and one other officer of the corporation. A record of the acts of said officers having access to the securities shall be made in triplicate, one copy to be left in the vault, one copy retained by the Treasurer, and one copy filed with the Recording Secretary. The Treasurer shall be the custodian of all funds and securities.

Section 5.—These BY-LAWS may be amended or repealed by a majority vote at any members meetings and by a three-fourths vote of the Board of Trustees. Twenty days notice in wirting, setting forth the proposed changes, shall be required in all cases.

AGENDA ITEM 14

Epworth League Institutes.—Your Committee on Epworth League respectfully presents the following report:

The work of the Epworth League shall be correlated with the other Young People's Work of the Conference in an organization to be known as the Pacific Northwest Conference, Young People's Council. The Department of Religious Education and Young People's Work of the Board of Education of the Conference shall have general direction of the activities of the Council. The Council is authorized to adopt and put into operation such regulations as it deems necessary for the prosecution of its work.

Proposed Plan of Correlation for the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference Methodist Young People's Institutes

There shall be such Young People's Institute Commission organized in the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference as deemed necessary by the Conference Young People's Council.

Each Institute Commission shall have not less than nine nor more than twenty-one members. The Commissions shall organize by electing a chairman, vice-chairman, secretary, treasurer, manager, and dean.

Each Commission shall make an annual report to the Conference Board of Education. Included in this report shall be nominations for membership upon the Commission. The Board of Education, in turn, will present these nominations to the Annual Conference in its report to that body for confirmation. In addition to the members thus selected, the District Superintendents, the president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer of the District Young People's Councils served by the Institute shall be regular members of the respective Commissions. The Conference Director of Young People's Work shall be a member of all Young People's Institute Commissions.

All elected members shall serve for a term of three years, one-third to be elected annually.

It is recommended that from one-third to one-half of the members of these Commissions shall be young people under thirty years of age.

Each Commission shall have an annual meeting prior to December 1. At this meeting the Commissions shall organize, elect officers, and make preliminary plans for the next season's Institutes.

Immediately upon election, the deans of all the Young People's Institutes shall, with the Conference Director of Young People's Work, become an Institute Correlation Committee. They shall meet at the call of the Conference director for the purpose of: (1) working out a satisfactory schedule of dates, (2) discovering to what extent they can cooperate in securing faculty and developing programs, and (3) preparing a tentative schedule of program and faculty personnel. Each dean will report the findings of the Correlation Committee to his respective Institute Commission for consideration and action.

Each Institute Commission shall be responsible for the promotion, program, financing, management, and conduct of their respective Institutes.

The title to all property held for Institute purposes shall be held by the Conference corporation. The control of the property shall be in the hands of the local Institute Commission.

AGENDA ITEM 15

District Superintendents' Reports.—"Be it resolved that we ask the District Superintendents to prepare a report of the work in their respective districts, the reading of which shall require not more than twelve minutes.

"Be it further resolved that, in addition, the District Superintendents prepare one report of twelve to fifteen minutes on policies for the Conference.

"Be it further resolved that we request the Committee on Program of the Annual Conference, in cooperation with the Bishop, to set aside one evening session of the Annual Conference for the reading of these reports."

VI.
REPORTS

BOARD OF EDUCATION

In accordance with the instructions of the Joint High Commission, the Conference Board of Education has divided itself into two divisions. (See list under Boards and Commissions.)

Young People's Institutes.—There were eight Young People's Summer Institutes conducted during the past summer, with a combined paid registration of 1,292 persons. The faculties, programs, spirit, and results were of a uniformly high order. We recommend the continuance of this splendid program, and concur in the nominations of the Institute Commissions. (See list.)

The Conference Young People's Council.—After much discussion and consideration, and having received favorable action by groups of young people in every district in the Conference and the approval of the Joint High Commission, the young people of the Conference have organized themselves into the "Pacific Northwest Conference Methodist Young People's Council." This organization includes the Epworth League, the Sunday-school Young People, the Missionary Society Young People, and the College Groups. The seven districts have been similarly organized. We ask the hearty cooperation of the pastors with this most promising Young People's Movement.

The young people request permission to attempt to raise the following amounts from the young people's organizations of the Conference for the promotion of their work: Vancouver District, $75; Seattle District, $100; Tacoma District, $100; Walla Walla District, $75; Columbia River District, $75; Puget Sound District, $75; Spokane District, $75.

Eighty-one local Epworth League Chapters have participated in the Conference Epworth League Program Contest during the past year. We recommend this program to our pastors as a means for stimulating greater activity among the young people.

We request the appointment of J. Edgar Purdy as Director of Young People's Work in the Conference. We greatly appreciate his splendid leadership.

College of Puget Sound.—The College of Puget Sound reports a successful year in its material, intellectual, and spiritual activity. It has lived within its budget, and plans to do so again this year. The field forces functioned well, but did not make progress toward securing funds for settlement with the General Education Board, Rockefeller Foundation, which would enable them to settle satisfactorily on June 1, 1930. This Conference must not record a failure in meeting that challenge.

The Pacific Northwest Conference is indeed fortunate to become inheritor of the College of Puget Sound, located at Tacoma, Washington. That it is truly a college is certified to by legal and extra-legal standardizing agencies. That it is a Christian college is witnessed, not only by the ideals engraved on stone, but by the teachings of the faculty, in individual living and instruction; also by the Christian character developed in its graduates. The graduating class of seventy-seven last spring had a larger percentage of professing Christians in it than when it entered as freshmen; also a larger percentage than that of the freshmen entering the last year.

There is deep concern on the part of this Conference that it not only shall have these marks of being Christian, but that it shall develop constantly this phase of its life. In order that it may do so, this Conference must give its hearty sympathy and material support.

This institution was founded in sacrifice by the fathers. It can only be maintained in the same way. We therefore pledge its Board of Trustees, which is elected by this Conference, and its president, Edward H. Todd, the hearty and loyal support of this Conference in the securing of the balance of $135,000 of the challenge pledge of the General Education Board, Rockefeller Foundation, and in the placing of $150,000 of endowment back of the Department of Religious Education.

The high ideals for material equipment, scholastic attainment and quality, and the spiritual life of the college as adopted by the Board of Trustees are heartily endorsed. This Conference pledges every legitimate effort to maintain and develop them.

We ask the District Superintendents to collaborate with the officers of the college during the year in the attainment of the successful issue of the present efforts of the college to meet the existing emergency.

We nominate trustees as per list in Conference Boards.

Kimball School of Theology.—In two years Kimball School of Theology will have come to the twenty-fifth anniversary of its founding. This event should be commemorated by some adequate program of advance.

The endowment fund has received some additions through land donations and a few wills have been written with amounts favoring Kimball School. C. W. DeGraff, the treasurer, has been especially successful in his investments of all endowment holdings.

The budget expenses have been confined to the same level. The Board of Education appropriates approximately the same. The receipts from the churches and from individuals have not been able to erase the deficit. The amount owing at the bank, $2,500, and the salary deficits, about $2,500, are the only charges against the institution. The total contributed by the churches of the Pacific Northwest Conference will show a wholesome increase over any previous giving by the Puget Sound and Columbia River Conference. We believe the amount asked last year, $3,500, on the budget should be asked this coming year, and, if possible, met in full.

A more general cooperation should be manifested by all of the churches of the patronizing territory. This should be brought about either by a definite amount being placed in the church budget, or by special representation of the claims of the school, either from the pulpit or by personal solicitation. We believe many more churches should be added this fall to the definite support of the school.

The action of the Alumni Association should be very generally recognized by those who claim Kimball School as their Alma Mater, where a tithe of their tithe has been pledged to the seminary. This was a wholesome resolution passed at the last commencement period, and deserves a hundred-per-cent loyalty.

Wesley Foundation.—1. The correlation of Wesley Foundation Work at tax-supported colleges, universities, normal schools, or teachers' colleges within the bounds of the Pacific Northwest Conference shall be directed by a Conference Wesley Foundation Executive Committee.

2. That the Wesley Foundation Committee of the Division of Education add to the number such persons as they nominate of the total group when approved by the Annual Conference, which constitutes the Conference Wesley Foundation Commission. (See list.)

3. That the Committee on Wesley Foundation be instructed to nominate a treasurer and work out a basis of allocation of funds to Wesley Foundation within the Conference other than the University of Washington Foundation, and report to the Board of Education at its November meeting.

4. In view of the need for maintaining the work at the University of Washington at its present level, funds not designated by donors for use at other institutions may be appropriated for use at the university to make the annual income of this Foundation from within the Conference equal to the average annual income received from within the Conference during the years 1926-1929. This provision shall be effective through the Conference years 1929-1930 and 1930-1931. That each local Wesley Foundation treas-

Washington State College Summer School.—We appreciate the Summer School for Ministers held by the State College of Washington last June, and pledge our earnest support for the future sessions.

Northwest Training School—The Northwest Training School is a Bible training school. Its curriculum comprises courses in religious education, missions, church history, music, and kindred subjects. The faculty is competent and well trained. The graduates number 139, eighty per cent of whom have entered Christian service. The school is represented in both home and foreign fields.

Due to a fire soon after commencement, the school is to be opened October 1st in rented property. It is expected that a new building, fully equipped for the work of the school, will be completed during the school year.

The budget for the year was $14,621.22, which includes a deficit of $1,833.54. Owing to the changes made necessary by building, moving, and the fire, our budget will be slightly increased, and we are requesting that $16,000 be allowed to the school this year.

JOHN G. LAW, Chairman.
ERNEST F. HAROLD, Secretary.

COMMISSION ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

This will be the last report of the Commission on Religious Education. By act of the General Conference, our work will be taken over by the Conference Board of Education. Hereafter we will function as a Committee on Religious Education and Young People's Work. An important administrative change, but the work will go on.

Mr. Purdy has kept pastors and people so well informed by means of bulletins and circulars that a lengthy report is not necessary. During the year seven Interdenominational Standard Training Schools have been held, with more than 1,600 workers enrolled; eight Young People's Institutes, with almost 1,300 registrants; five local Efficiency Institutes; fifty-three group meetings, including forty-three Larger and Better Church School conferences; sixty-one conferences with local groups; eighteen conferences and councils with interdenominational groups. Mr. Purdy has preached eighty-one times.

Figures cannot tabulate promotional and educational activities. Mr. Purdy had an active part in the publicity campaign, which resulted in increased attendance at every Young People's Institute the past season. Thousands of pieces of material have gone out from his office to pastors, Sunday-school superintendents, and Epworth League presidents. Hundreds of letters of inquiry from workers have received prompt personal attention. A very conservative estimate indicates that he has traveled not less than 35,000 miles during the year.

A vigorous promotion resulted in seventy-one Daily Vacation Church Schools, with a combined enrollment of about 7,000 pupils.

One of the most important achievements of the year was the Seminar in Religious Education for pastors. About thirty persons from the area participated, with great personal profit and great benefit to the church. We recommend the continuance of this enterprise, with steadily enlarging scope and attendance.

The tragic need for more adequate opportunities for training our Sunday-school workers is apparent. We do appreciate the fine loyalty and consecration of our Sunday-school workers, and desire for all of them the skill and appreciation which comes through adequate preparation.

We urge upon Mr. Purdy and the Conference Board of Education, upon the pastors and all of our workers, that diligent and continuous attention be given teacher training.

We nominate the following persons to represent our Conference as members of the Washington Council of Religious Education: J. Ralph Magee, Andrew Warner, John G. Law, J. Edgar Purdy, and A. A. Callender.

The Methodist Episcopal Church will be expected to give financial support to the State Council. In order to avoid the inevitable confusion which would occur should the Council ask financial support from our local Sunday schools, in addition to the apportionments for our denominational work, and also that we as a church may be more closely related to the inter-denominational effort, we recommend that all financial support from our Sunday schools to the Washington Council of Religious Education be made through the Conference Board of Education.

We further recommend that the Conference Board of Education include in its budget for next year an item of $500 for the Council, to be paid proportionately as the funds come in from the Sunday schools. In order that we may be able to afford this addition to our budget and take care of our own expanding program, we request that the apportionment to the Sunday schools be made ten cents per person, not including the Home Department or Cradle Roll.

Budget for Next Year

Deficit from past year	$200 00
Field expense	1,200 00
Postage	300 00
Printing and Supplies	600 00
Secretary	600 00
Washington State Council	500 00
Standard Training Schools, etc	400 00
Board of Education	157 00
Miscellaneous	43 00
Total	$4,000 00

By authorization of the General Conference and in cooperation with the Board of Education, we may use the Rally Day offerings in meeting this budget. We urge that every Sunday school in the Conference observe Rally Day, take an offering, and send it promptly to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Education.

Regular World Service credit will be given for such remittances. Credit will be given on the ten cents per pupil, Conference apportionment. But be sure and send the Rally Day offering to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Education, and not to Chicago.

The receipts from the Sunday schools have been most gratifying the past year. We believe that the Pacific Northwest Conference leads all Methodism in the proportion of Sunday schools making Rally Day remittances. The general observance of Rally Day this year will meet our budget requirements and enable the Conference Board of Education to render increasingly helpful service in stimulating and developing a more adequate program of religious education in the Conference.

We wish to express our high appreciation of the work done by the Conference Director, J. Edgar Purdy, and request his reappointment to the work for another year.

ROY L. SPRAGUE, Secretary-Treasurer.

EVERETT DEACONESS CHILDREN'S HOME

Number of children cared for during the year	652
Average number per month	55
Number on hand at this time	50
Number of visits made during the year	4,929
Value of the new building with furnishings	$60,000 00
Value of the "Rest Cottage"	3,500 00
Value of the vacated "Old Home"	5,000 00
Endowments	167 11
Investments, plus the accrued interest	3,204 00
Funds collected, plus balance on hand	10,635 02
Disbursements during the year	9,633 06
Balance on hand in the Maintenance Fund	1,001 96

It is the policy to find Christian homes for the children as quickly as the children are ready, and proper persons are found who will adopt them. Applications for the adoption of these children should be made to the superintendent. The new Home, with its six apartments, is now occupied. This new building is the gift of the Service Clubs and citizens of Everett.

Respectfully submitted,

BERTHA B. ENLEY, Superintendent.

HOSPITALS AND HOMES

The beautiful loving sympathy which our Saviour manifested toward the sick and suffering when he walked the earth should ever direct his followers in taking the same interest in suffering humanity. Christian hospitals afford a wonderful opportunity to perform the most Christlike service. In studying the hospital situation in the bounds of our Conferences we observe that there are a number of cities that do not have Protestant hospitals. It would be well to give some attention to this matter. The reports of the hospitals of our Conferences were received with great delight.

It is resolved that we, as a Conference, pledge our sincere loyalty to these Christian institutions, and will work toward the establishment of other hospitals wherever the need becomes apparent.

U. F. HAWK, Chairman.

SEATTLE GENERAL HOSPITAL

Report of Superintendent

It was my privilege to come to Seattle, February first, as Superintendent of the Seattle General Hospital. My first word to you is one of commendation for the outstanding work of Miss Evelyn Hall, who gave some twenty-seven years of very faithful, conscientious, and wonderfully efficient service to the hospital and its patrons.

The financing and building of a new hospital on a new site was heartily endorsed by your Board. Already one of the outstanding organizations of the country is on the field, doing the quiet preliminary set-up work for the financial campaign which will be actively conducted between the middle of October and the 27th of November, culminating with the actual drive the last ten or twelve days of that time.

Two gifts, one in real estate valued at approximately $75,000, another cash pledge of $25,000, have already been received.

The medical staff is second to none in our own city, and are giving splendid cooperation toward keeping the hospital abreast of the modern hospital movement.

In the middle of May Miss Johnson was secured as our superintendent of nurses, and has already established, in the hospital and in the city, a most enviable record.

We are looking for, and working toward, the day when we shall have a new and even greater Seattle General Hospital to carry on the great healing work of the ministry of Christ, with finances sufficient that its services may be extended more liberally to those who cannot pay as well as to those who can. We seek your cooperation, as through Methodism in the name of the Master we carry on this great task.

LUTHER G. REYNOLDS.

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

The work of an evangelist is the chief commission of every minister and the supreme task of every arm of the church. Evangelism is of first importance in all our activities. Our approach must be as varied as human needs. We commend every method that challenges men to face their relationship to God.

Last year's reports show that ninety per cent of those received into membership on confession of faith came from the church school. This is an indication that early youth is a fruitful field for evangelism. Probably eighty per cent of the total enrollment in our Sunday schools are eventually lost to the Kingdom. We urge that diligent attention be given to the Sunday schools, Epworth Leagues, and other organizations reaching youth as agencies for producing decisions for Christ and nurturing these decisions toward the fullness and stature of Christ. Rev. J. Edgar Purdy, Conference Director of Religious Education, stands ready to help pastors and churches in cultivating this fruitful field.

Revival effort and personal visitation campaign should have place in the program of every church. A study of the reports of membership increase in the Conference this year seems to indicate that practically this whole growth in members came as a result of personal-visitation effort. We commend the work of Rev. J. C. Poolton, and recommend that churches avail themselves of his leadership.

We call the church to prayer, consecration, holy enthusiasm, and utter abandon, that the evangelistic mission of Methodism may be performed.

PAUL H. ASHBY,
J. EDGAR PURDY.

DIRECTOR OF EVANGELISM

The following churches have been served: Skelton, Parkland, Oakville, Sumner, Greenlake, Seattle, St. Paul's; Tacoma, Sequim, Washougal, and White Salmon.

An average of sixty visits have been made in homes, mostly with the pastor, visiting difficult cases. An average of seventeen sermons and addresses at each church. Over two hundredand fifty persons have been received into these churches as the result of these campaigns. I have traveled 5,200 miles, mostly by automobile, to and on these charges.

While the financial returns have not been encouraging, I have enjoyed the work very much, and the pastors have uniformly expressed their appreciation of the inspiration it has given them and their people to continue this greatly needed house-to-house visitation evangelism.

GEO. C. POOLTON.

TACOMA GOODWILL INDUSTRIES

The past year has been one of real development. A campaign for building funds secured about $46,000. The contract for the new building will be let before long.

A building on two lots was purchased, to be used for the women's dormitory, while property on the other side has been promised to be used for a men's dormitory.

In 1928 1,102 people were given employment, receiving a wage of $27,826.43. This year the wage to handicapped people, up to September 1, exceeded that of last year by $3,388.81. About sixty-five are on the pay roll every day.

The religious services comprise the chapel service every morning at eight o'clock, morning prayer meetings twenty minutes preceding this three mornings a week, and a Sunday-afternoon service. There are three clubs for girls, with an enrollment of thirty-five, while about a dozen other girls are seeking membership. This is a very encouraging work. A number have been converted during the year, one of whom died happy in the Lord. Another is now on his death bed, a man who was most cynical and wicked when he came to us, but who, for months, has been living a changed life. The work surely has God's blessing upon it. H. W. MICHENER, Superintendent.

INSTITUTIONAL BENEVOLENCES

Your Committee on Institutional Benevolences, having carefully weighed the askings of the various Conference institutions for the coming year, recommends that the following amounts be apportioned to the charges of the Pacific Northwest Conference:

Northwest Training School	$16,000
Wesley Foundations	16,000
Kimble School of Theology	3,500

We further recommend that these apportionments be made by a committee consisting of the District Superintendents and two representatives of the Committee on Institutional Benevolences, namely, Samuel J. Chaney and E. J. Huston.

SAMUEL J. CHANEY, Chairman.
ERLE HOWELL, Secretary.

JASON LEE CENTENNIAL

It becomes one of the first privileges of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference to take action regarding the forthcoming Jason Lee Centennial. Comprehensive statements of the occasion for this celebration, together with the creative action already taken by the several Conferences of the Pacific Northwest and the unanimous vote of the last General Conference, have appeared in their order and need not here be repeated.

That there may be adequate preparation for this Centennial celebration as may interest this Conference, in relation to all the Annual Conferences of the Old Oregon Country, your Historical Society recommends the following procedure:

That the Historical Society of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference be authorized to cooperate with like organizations from the other interested Conferences.

That the resident Bishop of the Portland Area and the District Superintendents sustain an advisory relation.

That the several general boards of the Methodist Episcopal Church be requested to select suitable commissioners to cooperate; also

That the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, be invited to representation.

We suggest that the executive officers of the Historical Societies of the Oregon, Idaho, and Pacific Northwest Conferences be included among the commissioners, and empowered to take the initiative in the organization and the preliminary preparations and report their progress to the next sessions of the cooperating Annual Conferences.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY

This society has discontinued receiving members. It is merged with the Conference Claimants' organization. The funds are to be kept intact until present members pass away. All income from the invested funds above a rate of $1.31 for payment of annuity is to be turned over to the Conference Claimants for distribution.

There is no change in the relationship of the members to this fund because of the merger or by transferring to any other Conference. Their claim remains the same.

Permanent Fund	$22,224 07
Pearson Fund	625 00
Invested Funds	$22,849 07
Interest-bearing Notes	4,541 00
Total Aid Funds	$27,390 07

H. W. MICHENER, Secretary.

PUBLICATIONS AND LITERATURE

Methodist Book Concern.—We acknowledge with deepening pride the wonderful contribution that is being made to the life of our day religiously and culturally through the medium of our Publishing House and its numerous depositories throughout the country. We are especially grateful that, for the first time in history, the Portland Area can claim for itself one of these depositories, through which it may minister to the vital needs of this growing empire of the West. In order that this agency may reach the goal of greatest usefulness, we urge upon our brother ministers and, through them, upon the laity, not only the privilege, but the sacred obligation of patronizing our Portland depository in the purchase of their reading materials.

We commend to all the splendid service of the Book Concern and the Board of Education in placing regularly at the disposal of pastors and churches choice lists of books, selected to meet the needs of both young and old.

Church School Literature.—The day of striving for better things is manifest on every hand. Under its domination improvements are appearing in quick succession in all walks of life. In the field of religion this spirit is evidenced in a desire to find better methods through which to bring to all spiritual truth.

We observe with deep interest and approval the efforts of our church-school leaders to bring to the task of training the rising generation the best that can be found, both in teaching materials and in the method of presenting them. After years of most painstaking effort and experiment, they now present the church with what is known as "the Closely Graded Lesson Materials" for use in church schools. This literature contains 70 per cent more biblical matter than the old graded lessons, and carries with it the endorsement of leading Christian educators, and more especially the glad endorsement of those who have put it to the test in experiment stations.

While the church still wisely provides the "Group Graded" and the "Uniform Lessons" for schools that must have them, we most earnestly recommend that, as pastors, we lead the way by introducing to our churches the new lesson texts, and that we address ourselves to the task of training our teachers in the use of the same. In this connection we pause long enough to commend the splendid leadership of our Conference Director of Religious Education, J. Edgar Purdy, whose services are gladly placed at the disposal of all.

Church Publications.—Publications such as The Epworth Herald, The Methodist Review, The Pacific Christian Advocate, have long since demonstrated their outstanding worth among us—the former in voicing and interpreting the aspirations of youth, the Review in furnishing a mine of choicest materials for the minister, and The Pacific Advocate as a voice, a guide, an interpreter, a spiritual tonic, and a unifying agency for preachers and people throughout the area. To be without these papers is to impose upon ourselves and our churches a great injustice.

Especially would we urge the unfailing support of all in promoting increased circulation of our own Pacific Advocate. Blessed as we are with the most outstanding editorial leadership in the church in the person of our own Dr. Edward Laird Mills, we would remind ourselves again that the only guarantee for the future security of our paper is a constantly enlarging circulation. That we may not fail in any wise we urge that nothing be allowed to sidetrack an energetic presentation of the claims of the Advocate on Good Literature Sunday, and that this be followed by the pastor with personal interviews of the membership till all have been solicited. We would urge that a minimum goal of at least 1,500 new subscriptions be set by this Conference for the coming year.

We hereby record our appreciation of the visit of Dr. Geo. C. Douglass, Publishing Agent of the Book Concern, and for his splendid address presented to the Conference body. We also wish to record our indebtedness to our own Bishop Titus Lowe for his splendid review of several outstanding books of the day and his recommendations concerning them.

(Signed) THOMAS ACHESON,
J. H. AVERY,
Committee.

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION AND COMMITTEE

We reaffirm and accept for ourselves the Christian principles enunciated in the Social Creed of the Churches and embodied in our Discipline, paragraph No. 597. We urge that all our preachers read this paragraph to their congregations on the Sunday preceding Labor Day, as recommended in the Discipline. That we may work more effectively and become pioneering exponents of humanism, we urge every preacher to become a member of the Methodist Federation for Social Service, obtain its information service, bulletins, and other literature, that we may be well informed of events and social trends, and well instructed in the application of these Christian principles to the whole of life.

We heartily commend our Committee of Investigation of the Centralia tragedy for their wise action in seeking to obtain the cooperation of the Federal Council of Churches and other national church bodies in this inquiry. We request the Conference to send a telegraphic message to the Administrative Committee of the Federal Council, urging it to make such an investigation, that, by impartial, balanced, disinterested investigators, we may learn the truth.

During this session of the Conference the Social Service Commission elected new officers, and also elected an executive committee to reorganize the Social Service Commission into a more active and effective body. (See list under Conference Boards.)

We recommend that the anniversary service of the Social Service Commission be given official recognition in the Conference program for next year.

HARLAN STONE,
President, Social Service Commission.
JOHN W. CAUGHLIN,
President, Committee on Social Service.

WORLD PEACE

To-day we would feel anew the force of the Master's words when he said: "Blessed are the eyes which see the things which ye see, for many prophets and kings desired to see the things which ye see, and saw them not."

This is a day of amazing progress toward world peace, not as a sentimental reform, but as an economic necessity. Forces which unite mankind are taking precedence over forces which divide the human family. The nations are becoming increasingly interdependent. Architecture, sculpture, painting, music, drama, literature—these are part of our common heritage. Astronomy, chemistry, physics, medicine, radio, aeronautics, engineering, and the whole field of technology—these override the boundaries of race and nationality.

The day of the old-time politician, with his appeal to human ignorance and his apostrophe to the flag, is gone. Research has supplanted rhetoric and fact-finding has taken the place of fault-finding. The problems of world diplomacy have become problems of business to be solved by experienced business men and students of economic laws.

There is an increasing appreciation of the futility of the sword to right the wrongs of mankind. It is destructive of the commerce, industry, resources, credit confidence, morality, and man-power of friend, foe, and neutrals alike. The sword is as obsolete as the witch doctor's charms in the world of medicine.

We rejoice in the substitution of conference for conflict. Imperfect as any human instrumentality must be, the League of Nations has justified its existence in the prevention of war and the furtherance of human welfare.

We favor the formulation of a code of international law and its administration through a world court. At present international law comprises simply the rules of the game of war—rules which have no validity in the exigencies of armed strife. We respectfully urge the United States Senate to confirm the Root formula, whereby we shall become an official factor in the World Court.

During the past year half a hundred nations have officially ratified the Kellogg-Briand Multilateral Treaty. They have thus pledged their national honor to seek the settlement of all international disputes by pacific means. Already it has prevented war between China and Russia in the Manchurian dispute. We regard as most wise the demand recently voiced by Ramsay MacDonald at Geneva, that the part of the League covenant pledging collective military action against offending nations be now brought into harmony with this international treaty to pursue the paths of peace under all circumstances.

The logical outcome of this treaty will be cooperative and progressive reduction of the instruments of war. We congratulate President Hoover and Premier MacDonald that they have postponed the building of battleships, pending their personal conference and the subsequent World Conference on the Reduction of Armaments.

We request Bishop Titus Lowe, in behalf of the Pacific Northwest Conference, to send our hearty welcome to Premier MacDonald, as, for the first time in history, the executives of these two powers, representing more than half the population of the world, meet for conference on American soil. It is to be hoped that President Hoover may some day return the call, for:

"There is neither East nor West,
Nor border nor breed nor birth,
When two strong men stand face to face,
Though they come from the ends of the earth."

COMMITTEE ON INVESTIGATION OF CENTRALIA ARMISTICE DAY TRAGEDY

The committee authorized by the action of the Puget Sound Annual Conference at its last session, which committee was to be formed by the joint action of the cabinet and a special committee of the Conference Social Service Commission, was finally completed and called together for the purpose of organization by District Superintendent Robert J. Reid, at the First Church, Seattle, at 4.00 P. M., May 8, 1929.

In accordance with the suggestions set forth in the Conference resolution (page 59, Minutes of Puget Sound Conference of 1928), the committee proceeded at once to enlist the cooperation of the Federal Council of Churches, the National Catholic Welfare Association, and the Central Council of Jewish Rabbis.

Knowing that Doctor Magee was to be in New York City at this time, the Committee asked him to approach the Federal Council relative to the Centralia investigation. Doctor Magee met with representatives of the Federal Council and the Central Council of Jewish Rabbis. The National Catholic Welfare Association was, unfortunately, not able to send a representative to this meeting. The Federal Council assured Doctor Magee of its interest in the investigation, but also advised that if such investigation were undertaken, part of the cost of said inquiry would have to be borne by the churches in the area concerned.

Soon after this initial approach the Committee was notified that Dr. Worth Tippy, of the Social Service Department of the Federal Council of Churches, was to be in Seattle on May 22 and 23, and it was suggested that the Committee arrange a meeting with him.

In the meantime the Committee, in order to make sure the entrance of the Federal Council into the inquiry, set about seeking the support and cooperation of other local denominational bodies. It was successful in securing the appointment of a parallel committee by the Annual Session of Congregational Churches in Western Washington and in bringing the matter to the attention of sessions of the Baptist and Presbyterian bodies. (The Seattle Presbytery has since appointed a committee to collaborate with our committee.)

On May 23 our committee, together with that of the Congregational Church and representatives of the Conference Social Service Commission and ministers of the Presbyterian, Baptist, Christian, and Reformed Jewish bodies, numbering twenty-five, met with Doctor Tippy to discuss the Centralia case and the entrance of the Federal Council into the investigation. The Bishop of the Episcopal Doicese, Bishop S. Arthur Huston, could not be present at this meeting, but gave his whole-hearged support in favor of such an inquiry, both to our committee and to Doctor Tippy. Upon the advice of Doctor Tippy, three separate requests, namely, those of our committee, the Congregational committee, and the Committee of Twenty-five, were forwarded to the Federal Council, inviting its joint action with us in the Centralia inquiry.

On June 5 and 6 our committee received communications from Dr. F. Ernest Johnson, Department of Research and Education of the Federal Council, stating that the request, with his favorable indorsement, would be presented to the Administrative Committee of the Federal Council for action. Last week the committee received word that both Doctor Johnson and Doctor Tippy would be present for the meeting in New York on September 26, and that they were returning two weeks before that date to prepare the soil for the successful issue of our request.

Doctor Johnson informed us that it would be necessary for the local field to provide the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for the investigation and study. This would be about one-fifth of the cost of the investigation, the other four-fifths to be borne by the Federal Council. The Finance Committee of the Committee of Twenty-five which met with Doctor Tippy at the May 23d meeting has already allocated seven hundred dollars ($700) of this amount among the local denominations, and is certain that the remaining three hundred will be underwritten.

Notwithstanding the fact that the committee is unable to bring in a completed report of the investigation, considering the fact of the unusual importance of the case, the limitations of this committee or any other local committee in making a "thorough, impartial investigation of the alleged crimes of these men," and in drawing up "a reliable, unbiased report," and, considering further as a consequence the absolute necessity of a staff of outside expert research men in bringing in a report, whether favorable or unfavorable to the prisoners, which public opinion would be compelled to respect, the committee has deemed it wise to await the action of the Federal Council before beginning the field study of the case.

The committee is convinced that favorable action will be taken by the Administrative Committee on September 26. In the meantime it is cooperating with the Federal Council in an endeavor to enlist the joint action of the National Catholic Welfare Association.

The committee recommends the continuance of a committee to carry on negotiations with the Federal Council and to join with it in the study after action shall have been taken on September 26.

TEMPERANCE, PROHIBITION, AND PUBLIC MORALS

As representatives of the Methodist Episcopal Church, we believe that the time is now here when we should stamp with condemnation all forms of literature and all movies which have a tendency to destroy the idealism of modern youth, weaken our democracy, and destroy our civilization.

Therefore we recommend that the members of our great church refrain from the attendance upon such movies and the reading of such literature that tend to detract in any way from the life that is in Christ Jesus our Lord, so that all men might know Him who is the pattern of modern manhood.

We deeply resent the efforts of the large tobacco companies of America to induce the youth and the women of our land to the use of cigarettes through the most unethical and obnoxious type of billboard advertising and radio broadcasting.

Inasmuch as the Foster-Kleiser Advertising Company has said they would not renew contracts for such type of display if the public sentiment were in favor of eliminating such, we most heartily commend this expressed stand, and offer to them and all other agencies our most loyal support in taking these displays off the billboards which are flaunted in the eyes of even the very young.

We deplore the continued introduction of the rodeo, with its demoralizing influences—gambling, intoxication, and other attendant evils and cruelty to animals—into our cities, towns, and communities.

We deplore the lowered ideals of amusement in its better interpretation as is evidenced by the prevalent dance. That the modern dance is a moral curse and an embarrassment to right living, the derelicts along the social highway evidence. We recommend the creation of a Social Committee in each church, whose business it shall be to encourage wholesome and lively entertainment for our older as well as our younger constituents, that the profiteering, debasing dance halls may be driven from our midst.

The Eighteenth Amendment and supporting prohibitory legislation is a concrete demonstration of the Christian church in the social and moral life of the people. It was given a majority such as was accorded no other amendment to the Constitution, which was demonstrated in the last Presidential election. The majority want it now.

No vociferous minority who, by their empty phrased, false, garbled propaganda and loud talking encourage the bootlegger, moonshiner, gangster, and robber. In fact, every pirate against humanity and every anarchist against the laws of our fair democracy can convince us that in order to secure economic progress, social stability, and moral rectitude or religious development, it is necessary to make whiskey more plentiful and the Brewers' and Distillers' Association the governing party of our country. The permanence of prohibition as sound public policy will come through adequate legislation and when, through education, citizens shall have become good because they have caught the spirit of law observance.

To this end we wish to commend President Hoover for the leadership he has undertaken to give by his personal example, by his utterances, and by setting the machinery in operation toward the better enforcement of the national prohibition laws. In these President Hoover calls upon all business leaders in every community to frown upon, by example and utterances, every bootlegger, moonshiner, and all law-breakers associated with them in carrying on their unlawful business.

We desire to record our confidence in, and our deep appreciation of, the monumental work done by our own Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals, under the wise and fearless leadership of that prince of crusaders, Dr. Clarence True Wilson, creating, through literature circulated, public meetings held, essay contests, clip-sheet, and other activities, a sentiment militantly strong in the war against alcohol.

We express our confidence in Mr. Roy C. Lyle, Prohibition Administrator of the Twentieth District. By his wise, courageous, unremitting labors he has placed his district in an enviable position as regards law enforcement.

We further express our confidence in the statesmanlike leadership given by Mr. B. N. Hicks to the Anti-Saloon League of the State of Washington and its work within the State. In this connection we would call the attention of every member of this Conference to paragraph 599 of the 1928 Discipline, which reads: "We recommend and endorse the . . . Anti-Saloon League of America, our approved agency for the cooperation with the members of other churches and with temperance organizations in America for united efforts against the common foe."

Your Committee recommends and urges every pastor to inform himself and preach sermons during the Conference year that relate to prohibition and its observance.

We would further call upon all business men and leaders in every community not only to abstain from the use of, and the patronage of those who traffic in intoxicating liquors, but to cooperate with every organization whose work and aim is to promote good citizenship and law observance.

We must continue the fight. We will not be misled by any artifice. We will not be turned aside by any obstacle. We will carry on and we will win this fight.

ERNEST H. WINFIELD, Chairman.
FRANK R. GILLETT, Secretary.

TRANSPORTATION AND EQUALIZATION

We recommend the raising of a Committee on Transportation and Equalization, to continue the present adjustment plan on the basis of one and one-half cents per mile, applied on the basis of cash salary, including missionary support.

We further recommend that each retired member of the Annual Conference not employed, but living within the bounds of the Conference, be included in the adjustment of transportation on the basis of their annuity.

We further recommend that this Commission be asked to prepare a plan of self-entertainment, to be presented at the next session of our Annual Conference.

We report: Receipts, $858.85; disbursements, $720.53; balance, $138.32.

RESOLUTIONS

Entertaining one of the largest Methodist Conferences west of the Mississippi River is no light task, and it is therefore with heartfelt gratitude that we record its successful accomplishment by St. Paul's Church in this city, under the direction of its pastor, Dr. S. J. Chaney. Abundantly more than we could think or ask has been the provision made for our enjoyment and comfort.

To Bishop Titus Lowe we express our appreciation of his able administration and truly brotherly spirit.

We are again grateful to the Spokane papers for the generous amount of space given to the Conference proceedings and the fairness and consideration shown by their representatives.

Dr. Bert E. Smith brought to our Conference enduring inspiration through his splendid addresses. To him and his able assistant, Edwin T. Randall, we give our deepest appreciation.

That we heartily endorse the resolution referred to this body by the Seattle and Tacoma preachers relating to the change of date for the annual sessions of the Conference.

To the Official Board and membership of St. Paul's Church, and to the Ladies' Aid for their gracious service in serving meals, our thanks are due.

We especially wish to record our appreciation of the self-sacrificing work accomplished by the Statisticians and Treasurer and their staffs. Also the efficient work of our Conference Secretary and his able assistants.

In short, to each and all who have contributed to the success of this the first session of the Pacific Northwest Conference we express our thanks.

C. C. CURRY, Chairman.
M. M. EATON, Secretary.

BOARD OF STEWARDS

The Conference Board of Stewards recommends that the apportionment to the charges for the support of the Conference claimants be seven and one-half per cent of the total ministerial support, including house rent, plus the total amount paid for current expenses as reported in the Minutes of the preceding year.

We further recommend that the secretary of the Conference Board of Stewards mail the amount of this apportionment to the various churches as soon as possible after the Conference session.

Further, the Board of Stewards recommends that the charges pay this apportionment in quarterly payments, beginning December 1, 1929.

Number of retired ministers, 83; widows, 63; dependent children, 18. Total number of claimants, 163.

Annuity paid this year, $16. Annuity rate fixed by the Annual Conference, $20.

J. S. BELL, President.
JOSEPH M. ADAMS, Secretary.

MEMOIRS

W. H. BAKER

William Henry Baker was born in Canada, July 6, 1859, and departed this life at the age of sixty-nine years, three months, and seven days, at Seattle, Washington. His father, Richard Baker, was a local preacher, and his mother, Joanna Baker, was a woman of noble Christian character. In 1880 he was united in marriage to Ella Graham, who has always from that time been his constant helper and companion, and survives him. Two daughters came to bless their union, and were present at the funeral—Mrs. H. W. Stoughton, of New York, and Mrs. Dudley Willard, of Worcester, Massachusetts. Doctor Baker had just returned home from visiting these daughters in the East when stricken. Other members who survive are: two grandchildren, Herbert Stoughton and Elinore Jane Willard; a brother, Frank S. Baker, of Rochester, New York, and a sister, Mrs. G. D. Treadwell, of Watertown, New York. Doctor Baker was an honored minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church for thirty-five years. He first joined the Northern New York Conference in 1890, and transferred to the Puget Sound Conference in 1909. He served as charges Lakeside, Haven, and Grace in Seattle, and St. Paul's in Tacoma. He served for four years as secretary of the Conference Claimants Fund of the Puget Sound Conference. On account of ill health he retired in 1924.

Funeral services were held in University Temple, Seattle, on Wednesday, October 17, Dr. Byron H. Wilson presiding. Messages of sympathy and appreciation were delivered by Dr. James E. Crowther and Dr. J. P. Marlatt. Interment was at Lake View Cemetery, Seattle, where Arcana Lodge of the Masonic Order took charge of the committal service.

JAMES E. CROWTHER.

REV. JOHN JOHNSON

Rev. John Johnson was born in Stofnas, Wermland, Sweden, April 8, 1855. He moved to Molmo, where he heard Rev. H. Lindskog preach in the Methodist Church, and was gloriously converted in January, 1879, and united with the church February 2 the same year.

He came to Worchester, Massachusetts, September 20, 1879, and united with the First Swedish Methodist Church in the spring of 1880. It was here it was discovered that he had ability that could be utilized in a wider field. The Official Board recommended him for our school in Evanston, Illinois. He graduated in 1890, and was, the same year, ordained deacon by Bishop FitzGerald, in St. Paul, Minnesota. During the time in school he served Melrose Park, Illinois; Racine, Wisconsin; and Olesburg, Kansas. He was transferred to Puget Sound Conference in 1891, and received the Elder's Orders in Tacoma in 1894 by Bishop Joyce.

He served faithfully and successfully the following charges: Seattle, two terms; Cedarhome, Skagit City, Pleasant Ridge, and Field. He served as District Superintendent one term, and was a charter member of the Pacific Swedish Mission Conference, taking the retired relation at the Conference in Kingsburg, California, in 1924.

He was a great student of the Word and a very faithful preacher, and his hearers were mightily attracted to Christ by his preaching. In his fellowship with his brethren in the Conference he faithfully followed the mandate of the Word by "in honor preferring others." He was a good neighbor, a loyal friend, and willing to help all who needed his help.

For some time his health had been failing. Surrounded by his loved ones, his face lit up with the smiles of heaven, he left, to be with his Lord and Master, the 23d day of January, 1929, at the age of seventy-three years, nine months, and fifteen days. He has gone home to praise the Lord. His earthly life was long; his heavenly life is endless and glorious.

He was married to Wilhelmina Christine Lindquist, May 3, 1893, and is deeply mourned by his wife and two daughters and five sons—Esther, Albin, Arthur, Earl, Florence, David, Donald; one sister—Mrs. Christina Johnson; one daughter-in-law, and two grandchildren—Marilyn and Eugene, and a large circle of friends. Peace be upon the memory of our beloved brother.

J. N. BURDELL.

REV. ERNEST J. BATES

Ernest J. Bates was born in Bristol, England, January 11, 1883, and passed from earth at Monroe, Washington, March 19, 1929, aged forty-six years. Four days before his death he was stricken with appendicitis and removed to the local hospital, where he underwent an operation, from which he never rallied.

As a young man he felt the call to the Christian ministry and immediately began preparing himself for that holy task. For some years he was a local preacher, and early learned how to prepare and deliver sermons. He kept to the forefront in his readings, and the excellent selection of books in his library attest to the diligence of his pulpit preparation.

On August 9, 1907, he was married to Truth Brown, and soon after this the young couple left their native land and came out to the State of Washington. In the fall of that year we find them supplying the East Hoquiam and South Aberdeen charge.

In 1909 he was admitted on trial in the Puget Sound Conference and ordained Deacon under the Missionary Rule by Bishop Charles W. Smith. From this time on we find him serving acceptably charges from Ferndale in the north to the Columbia River in the south.

He was an active participant in all that pertained to community betterment in the charges which he so faithfully served. He was an honored member of the Masonic Fraternity and an active worker in the Kiwanis and Commercial Clubs in Monroe.

An editorial in the local paper gives this tribute to Ernest Bates: "He gave to his calling the boundless benefit of an energetic body and a sincere heart. He had a genius for friendship, and above all he loved to do the kindly deed. Free from every intimation of pretense and sham, it might be said of him that he was without guile, and that his open and ruddy face reflected the spirituality of a sincere heart."

In every charge he served Brother Bates was held in high esteem because of his many excellent characteristics. His faith in God was strong and abiding and admitted of no compromise. He was a loyal Methodist preacher, faithful to the doctrines of his church without sham or hypocrisy.

As one of the secretaries he gave himself unstintedly to the service of this Conference for seventeen years, and his ability as a shorthand writer was invaluable to the special committees appointed from time to time. We miss him from his accustomed place. His genial companionship and wholehearted brotherliness are part of our most precious memories.

Shortly before his passing, when the shadow of death was stealing across his vision, he was heard singing softly, "Abide with me, fast falls the eventide." The shadow did not linger, as it was but the veil that hid the beauties of that land where the Lamb is the light thereof.

The funeral services were held at Monroe, under the direction of Dr. F. A. LaViolette and Dr. R. J. Reid, assisted by Rev. Philip Raymond. Six of his ministerial brethren acted as pallbearers and bore his body to the last resting place. A large concourse of people gathered to show their respect for one whom they had learned to love.

To Mrs. Bates and the little girl and the three staunch laddies go out our heartfelt prayers that the God of all comfort shall be their stay in this time of loneliness and sorrow.

"What is excellent, as God lives, is permanent;
Hearts are dust, hearts' loves remain,
Heart's love will meet thee again."

ROBT. C. HARTLEY.

REV. DE WITT C. FRANKLIN

DeWitt Clinton Franklin, son of Hugh Benjamin and Mary Jane Franklin, was born December 18, 1848, at Wyoming Valley, Iowa County, Wisconsin. He departed to be with Christ, from his home, 111 South Serrano Avenue, Los Angeles, Saturday, April 27, aged eighty years, four months, and nine days. He was the eldest of nine children—six boys and three girls. Of this family two brothers and one sister survive him—Lemuel, of Seattle, Washington; Frank, of Santa Cruz, California; and Mrs. Jennie Stoner, of Burlington, Washington.

In his early manhood he was married to Sarah Bertha Graham, who passed away in Tacoma, Washington, during his superintendency of the Tacoma District. Later he was married to Mrs. Flora May Waddell, who survives him, and whose devoted, tender, remarkable care and nursing without doubt prolonged his life during these latter years of suffering and declining health. Their life together was ideal, and both endeared themselves to their neighbors and to the active members of Wilshire Church beyond anything to be expected of folk who are usually regarded as "retired." Docto Franklin also had an adopted son, Loren, of Spokane, Washington.

Doctor Franklin began his work as a Methodist minister within the bounds of the West Wisconsin Conference, serving four years as a supply pastor, and three years in the same capacity on Red Oak Circuit, Des Moines Conference. He joined the latter Conference on probation in 1878, and served efficiently Menlo, Harlan, Shelby and Osceola, Broadway, Council Bluffs, North Des Moines, and was presiding elder on the Atlantic and the Council Bluffs Districts each a full term of six years. While serving as pastor at Chariton he transferred to Puget Sound Conference for health reasons, serving Trinity Church, Seattle, one and a half years, and two years on the Tacoma District as Superintendent, and as pastor of Queen Anne Church, Seattle, three years.

He took the retired relation in October, 1912, moving to Los Angeles, where he had since made his home, being active in the affairs of that city, always keenly interested in civic and church life. The pastors of Wilshire Church felt his strong, kindly personality and many services always valuable, and loved him very much. The last few years have been passed in great suffering, and as the shadows began falling he was perfectly aware that the great adventure was at hand. He talked freely with his pastor, his wife, and friends concerning it, giving directions for his obsequies, and departing in full confidence that his Master would "receive him unto himself."

The funeral services at Wilshire Church were conducted by Dr. Willsie Martin and Dr. Lewis Thurber Guild. A service was held in Tacoma at the Buckley-King Chapel on May 2. Rev. W. O. Penadom was in charge. He was assisted by Dr. G. W. Frame and Dr. B. F. Brooks. O. L. Tuell sang two solos. Interment was in South Tacoma.

REV. EBENEZER HOPKINS

Ebenezer Hopkins was born May 7, 1842, in Osage County, Missouri, and died at Olympia, Washington, August 15, 1929, aged eighty-seven years. He was for many years an active member of the Puget Sound Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, although he took his superannuate relation twenty-four years ago. However, up to the very last days of his life he was very active in ministerial work.

At the age of seventeen he enlisted in the Civil War, and served through one enlistment and part of a second, in all nearly five years in the service of his country. He served with General Lyon's army in Missouri and Arkansas, and later was present at the capture of Mobile, Alabama, serving some time after the war was over. Shortly thereafter he joined the St. Louis Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, later serving as pastor for some time in Idaho and California. Some forty-four years ago he became a member of the Puget Sound Conference, and served as pastor at various charges, chiefly in the vicinity of Olympia. Shortly after he was discharged from the army, and on August 8, 1867, he married Welthy Maria Warren, and together they served the various charges referred to.

In his early ministry he was one of the pioneer circuit riders of the Methodist Episcopal Church, sometimes having a circuit covering two hundred miles. Throughout his life he delighted in serving small and outlying communities, and long after he was superannuated he regularly served as pioneer preacher in the outlying and mountain communities in his vicinity.

Eight children were born to Rev. and Mrs. Hopkins, of whom only two survive—George S. Hopkins, of Carbonado, Washington, and Mrs. Frances Morgan, of Hoquiam, Washington. Mrs. Hopkins died on January 14, 1911. Later Rev. Hopkins married Louise Sturdevant, whose death occurred in 1924. Throughout his life Mr. Hopkins delighted to serve the lonely and isolated and all that great host whose lives were cast in out-of-the-way places.

His particular delight was the children in the country school, and to few men is it given to have as wide and extended personal acquaintance with so many people as was granted to Brother Hopkins. Some years ago he started writing an account of his life and work, and at the time of his death had brought this account down to a very recent date. He began his service in the stirring times of the Civil War, and his story constitutes a vivid picture of life now fading into a vanished era. The pioneers of his day and age constitute that great body of men who laid the foundations of America and whose lives are truly American.

REV. CHARLES MORGAN CARSON

Charles Morgan Carson was born December 17, 1871, at Edgewater, Grayson County, Virginia. From thence he came to Montana, and later to Washington. He attended the State College at Pullman for one year and, following this, spent two years at Willamette University, Salem, Oregon. In 1902 he entered the Methodist ministry and united with the Columbia River Conference. His final charge was Leavenworth, Washington, to which he was appointed in September, 1928.

In 1909 Brother Carson was united in marriage to Miss Lemma McMillan, of Mouth-of-Wilson, Virginia. They immediately returned to Washington, where Brother Carson resumed his ministry. He leaves the wife, two daughters—Virginia and Pauline, two brothers—George W., of Grant, Virginia, and Matthew, of Birmingham, Alabama. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge at Oakesdale, Washington.

After a few weeks of suffering he left us to make his home in the Great Eternity. The end came on Sunday evening, September 15, 1929, at about the hour of eight o'clock. His spirit was patient and his mind clear to the last. He died as he had lived, in sublime faith that God was good and was near him. On one occasion he said, "I am reaching for the King," and Mrs. Carson having asked him what king, he replied, "The King Immanuel, and the place where it is all peace and joy." Before passing he said to the doctor: "I won't be with you much longer, thank the dear Lord. I am going to that heavenly home." With a ministry rich in experience and blessing to others, our brother has laid down his armor.

RULES GOVERNING CONFERENCE EXAMINATIONS

1. Admission on Trial.

(a) No person shall be admitted on trial who is past thirty years of age, without a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference.

(b) Examinations should be taken before the date of the Annual Conference session. Arrangements for such may be made by correspondence with the chairman of the Board. Examination must be completed the day before the opening of the Annual Conference. No examinations will be given after the opening of the Conference session.

2. General Rules Governing Books to be Studied and Examinations Thereon.

(a) Attendance at Summer School is required of all undergraduates (Discipline, Par. 187, Sec. 5). Written work on the books to be studied shall be in the hands of the Area Registrar not later than the first day of the Summer School of Ministerial Training. Examinations will be given at the close of the school. N. B.: These books are not assigned to instructors of the Board of Ministerial Training.

(b) The time of submitting written work on collateral reading shall be determined by correspondence with the designated instructor. All written work on collateral reading must be in the hands of the instructors at least two weeks before the date of the Annual Conference.

(c) No student shall be advanced who has more than two incomplete subjects.

(d) Each examiner shall be required to submit grades to the Registrar not later than fifteen days after receiving papers.

(e) Each undergraduate shall pay an annual fee of fifty cents to cover postage and other expense.

(a) RULES OF ORDER

1. The Conference session shall open on Tuesday evening for brief courtesy addresses and responses and for the purpose of organization, and to administer the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

(a) The morning sessions shall begin at 8.30 o'clock and adjourn at 12 M. The first thirty minutes shall be devotional exercises under the supervision of the Bishop presiding.

2. The bar of the Conference shall be fixed by vote.

3. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president or any member request it, and no report from committees shall be received until duplicate copies are placed in the hands of the secretary.

4. It shall be the duty of every member to give his vote on all questions unless, for special reasons, the Conference excuses him; but no member who is not within the bar shall be allowed to vote except by consent of the Conference.

5. The vote on any question before the Conference shall be taken by roll call, if such is expressly desired by fifteen members.

6. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at any time, without permission of the Conference; nor shall anyone speak more than once until everyone desiring to speak shall have done so.

7. No member shall object to the passage of a brother's character on questions implicating his moral standing or administration, without giving previous written notice of his intention, together with the grounds thereof.

8. At the first session of the Conference each preacher who has been in charge shall submit his statistical and financial reports. The publication of reports handed in later than the second day is not required unless so ordered by the Conference.

9. The secretary shall keep a Journal of all the proceedings of the Conference, and when approved and printed, the Minutes shall become the official record of the Conference. The secretary shall take charge of the Journals and all other Conference papers, preserve them with care, suffer no persons to take a copy of any papers, except with the consent of the Conference, and he shall bring or send such papers to the place of the Conference session.

10. The secretary, statistician, and treasurer shall be the official editors and publishers of the Conference Minutes, and they are authorized to make provision by assessment or otherwise upon the churches at least three months before Annual Conference for meeting the expenses of publication, of all secretarial work and all other incidental expenses incurred by the Annual Conference. This assessment shall be equal to thirty-five cents on each hundred dollars cash salary of all members and supplies serving charges; seven dollars from each District Superintendent; five dollars each from assistant pastors and effective members in detached service within the Conference. These amounts shall be paid to the Minute Fund Committee on the second day of Conference session, or the payment thereof reasonably guaranteed within sixty days after Conference adjourns. A sum equal to ten per cent of the amount received from assessments shall be turned over to the Conference Board of Trustees as a general expense fund to be disbursed by direction of the Conference, provided, however, that all other expenses shall have been met previously.

11. The secretary, statistician, and treasurer shall nominate their assistants. The officers and managers of the different Conference societies are authorized to appoint persons to fill any vacancies which may occur during the year.

12. All matter to be printed in the Journal shall be typewritten and duplicate copies delivered to the secretary before or immediately upon the adjournment of Conference.

13. Memorial Service. The following order of service is unanimously recommended by your committee: Hymn, Scripture Reading, Roll Call of Deceased Brethren (Conference standing), Prayer, Special Music, Memorial Address.

Obituaries to be limited to five hundred words, copies of which are to be in the hands of the secretary of the Conference before the adjournment of Conference for publication in the Minutes.

14. On the death of a member of the Conference it shall be the duty of the District Superintendent to notify the chairman of the Committee on Memoirs and all the preachers of that District of such death and the place and time of the funeral services. Also the chairman of the Committee on Memoirs shall inform the secretary of the dates of the birth and death and the place of death of the deceased, for publication in the Methodist Year Book.

15. The Auditing Committee shall report to the Conference upon the distribution of funds received for ministerial support, noting each instance where the pro rata shares have not been paid to the pastor, District Superintendent, Episcopal Fund, and Conference Claimants. Failure to comply with this Disciplinary requirement shall be sufficient cause for careful inquiry by the Committee on Conference Relations.

16. The Committee on Conference Relations shall report on all candidates for full membership, applicants for change of relation, and supernumerary preachers who request continuance in that position.

The Committee on Ministerial Qualifications shall inquire as to the age, physical condition, personal habits, financial obligation, family, and Christian experience of all candidates for admission on trial, and shall report on the acceptability of each when his name is called for admission. This committee shall also carefully inquire into the acceptability of local preachers who are seeking orders, and report the same to the Conference.

The District Superintendents shall submit to the Committee on Conference Relations and the Committee on Ministerial Qualifications, on the first day of the Conference session, names of all those who should appear before these committees, and they shall also appear before the committees to make representation concerning the candidates for Conference membership and local orders from their respective districts.

17. The Bishop, District Superintendents, and the pastor of the church where the session convenes shall be a committee to arrange the Conference program and to publish the same in the Pacific Christian Advocate before Conference meets.

18. The Committee on Conference Program shall provide a designated meeting place for each committee and for each Board. Committees shall meet from 1.30 to 3 P. M., and the Boards from 3 to 4 P. M., on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of the Conference week, or until their work is completed. No sessions of the Conference shall be held on Wednesday or Thursday afternoons.

19. Whenever a proposal for federation with other local churches is made, the pastor and District Superintendent shall refer the proposal to the Committee on Federation, consisting of the District Superintendent, together with three laymen and three ministers, who live within the district in which the proposed federation is located, and who are nominated by the District Superintendent of that district, which shall make a careful survey of the entire situation and report its findings to the next session of the Annual Conference.

20. Rules. The District Superintendents shall prepare a report of the work in their respective districts, the reading of which shall require not more than twelve minutes each. The Program Committee shall set aside one evening session for the reading of these reports. That the District Superintendents shall prepare one report of twelve to fifteen minutes on policies for the Conference.

21. All standing committees and others not herein provided for shall be nominated by the cabinet and confirmed by vote of the Conference before the session adjourns. No more than one-third of the membership of these committees shall be changed each year.

22. These rules and resolutions shall not be suspended or changed but by two-thirds vote of those present and voting.

(b) MINUTES OF THE LAY ELECTORAL CONFERENCE

The Lay Electoral Conference of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference met at the Jefferson Street Christian Church, Spokane, Washington, September 20, 1929.

The meeting was called to order at 10.30 by P. M. Snider. Mr. C. E. Downie, First Church, Seattle, was elected temporary chairman; P. M. Snider, temporary secretary.

Upon motion, the following committees were appointed by the chairman: Credentials—J. M. Fried, P. M. Snider, and Paul Sweet; Resolutions—C. E. Beach, H. L. Johnson, W. P. Hopping, J. J. Johnson, and A. C. Kershaw; Order of Business—C. E. Downie, Ruben Cross, and C. A. Robbins.

The meeting adjourned until 3.30 P. M.

Afternoon Session

The meeting reconvened at 3.30 P. M.

The report of the Credentials Committee showed 114 qualified delegates present.

The following were elected as permanent officers: Chairman, C. E. Downie; Secretary, P. M. Snider; Treasurer, H. M. Fried.

The proposed Constitutional Amendments were presented to the Conference by Dr. Edward Laird Mills, with the following results:

Constitutional Amendment empowering the Central Conferences to elect Bishops: Ayes, 110; noes, none.

Admission of Laymen to Annual Conference: Ayes, none; noes, 110.

Corrected Constitutional Amendment for Admission of Laymen to Annual Conference: Ayes, 103; noes, none.

A collection was taken, amounting to $20.50, and ordered turned over to the secretary of the Annual Conference, to assist in paying for publication of the annual Minutes.

A proposition from the Annual Conference was presented, proposing a change of the date of the Annual Conference from the middle of September to a week in the last half of June. After considerable controversy, the proposition was passed.

A vote was taken pledging the moral and financial support of the Conference to the Jason Lee Centennial.

The Resolutions Committee brought in the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

"Be it resolved by the Lay Electoral Conference of the Pacific Northwest Conference:

"1. That we extend our thanks and appreciation to the city of Spokane for its hospitality and many courtesies extended; to the Jefferson Street Christian Church for the use of its building for our meeting; to the press of this city for the friendly publicity given our meeting and the sessions of kindred organizations.

"2. That we endorse the work of the General Conference Committee on Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals, headed by Dr. Clarence True Wilson, and particularly commend its effort to cooperate with the Federal enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment.

"3. That we endorse the action of the Annual Conference relative to the Pacific Christian Advocate, and pledge our support to our church paper in its work for Methodism in this area. We believe that any consolidation of the Adovcates which contemplates the elimination of either of the Pacific Advocates would be inimical to Methodism in this part of the United States.

"4. That we endorse and urge the Annual Conference and the Bishop to definitely support the Wesley Foundation program at the various tax-supported institutions of this State.

"5. That we express our appreciation of the executive and administrative ability and the kindly Christian spirit of Bishop Lowe in this Conference in particular and in the Portland Area in general.

"Signed by the Committee:

"H. L. JOHNSEND, A. C. KERSHAW,
WM. P. HOPPING, C. E. BEACH,
J. J. JOHNSON, Chairman."

The meeting then adjourned.

C. E. DOWNIE, Chairman.
P. M. SNIDER, Secretary
